Graduate Bulletin
General Regulations

Graduate School Bulletin

It is the responsibility of the graduate student to become informed and to observe all regulations and procedures required by the program the student is pursuing. Ignorance of a rule does not constitute a basis for waiving that rule. The Graduate Bulletin current when a graduate student first enrolls gives the academic requirements the student must meet to graduate. However, with department consent, a student can change to the requirements in a later catalog published while the student is enrolled in the graduate school. Changes to administrative policies and procedures become effective for all students as soon as the campus community is notified of the changes.

The Graduate Bulletin is available to students in both print and electronic forms. Print bulletins are updated annually. Electronic versions of the Graduate Bulletin may be updated more frequently to reflect changes approved by the campus community. As such, students are encouraged to refer to the most recently available electronic version of the Graduate Bulletin. This version is available at the CSM website. The electronic version of the Graduate Bulletin is considered the official version of this document. In case of disagreement between the electronic and print versions, the electronic version takes precedence.

Curriculum Changes

The CSM Board of Trustees reserves the right to change any course of study or any part of the curriculum to respond to educational and scientific developments. No statement in this Bulletin or in the registration of any student shall be considered as a contract between Colorado School of Mines and the student.

General Policies of Student Conduct

In addition to the student conduct policies described in detail in this section of the Graduate Bulletin, the Colorado School of Mines has a number of policies which govern student behavior on campus. Following is a list of those important policies with a brief definition or description of each. Copies of the complete text describing each policy are available from the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs.

Campus Security

This policy is intended to improve security and reduce crime on campus. It includes the publishing of campus crime statistics and procedures for reporting crimes.

Alcohol Use

This policy conforms to state and local laws on alcohol use, distribution, and consumption. The text restates the legal drinking age, designates campus locations for consuming alcoholic beverages, explains procedures for planning student events at which alcohol is served, and gives the penalties for violating the policy.

Drug Use

Recognizing the threat to health and welfare from the use of illegal drugs. this policy requires CSM students to obey all Colorado and Federal laws concerning the manufacture, possession, sale, and use of drugs.

Drug Free Schools & Communities Act

This policy informs CSM students of community standards and potential consequences (the legal sanctions) for using alcohol or drugs illegally.

Firearms, Explosives, and Other Weapons

Covered in this policy are the general ban on campus of firearms, explosives, and other weapons, exceptions to the ban, and the firearm storage procedures.

Distribution of Literature

Given in this policy are the restrictions on distributing (including the selling of) literature, newspapers, and magazines on school property; the limit on distributing advertising or commercial material (for example, handbills); the requirements for soliciting and vending on school property; and the right to picket or demonstrate on campus.

Student Honor Code

The Associated Students of the Colorado School of Mines (ASCSM) passed the new CSM Student Honor Code in a vote held in March 2003.

Preamble

The students of Colorado School of Mines have adopted the following Student Honor Code in order to establish a high standard of student behavior at CSM. The Honor Code may only be amended through a student referendum supported by a majority vote of the Mines student body.

Code

Mines students believe it is our responsibility to promote and maintain high ethical standards in order to ensure our safety, welfare, and enjoyment of a successful learning environment. Each of us, under this Code, shall assume responsibility for our behavior in the area of academic integrity. As a Mines student, I am expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic excellence and personal integrity regarding my coursework, exams, academic projects, and research endeavors. I will act honestly, responsibly, and above all, with honor and integrity in all aspects of my academic endeavors at Mines. I will not misrepresent the work of others as my own, nor will I give or receive unauthorized assistance in the performance of academic coursework. I will conduct myself in an ethical manner in my use of the library, computing center, and all other school facilities and resources. By practicing these principles, I will strive to uphold the principles of integrity and academic excellence at Mines. I will not participate in or tolerate any form of discrimination or mistreatment of another individual.
Academic Integrity

The Colorado School of Mines affirms the principle that all individuals associated with the Mines academic community have a responsibility for establishing, maintaining and fostering an understanding and appreciation for academic integrity. In broad terms, this implies protecting the environment of mutual trust within which scholarly exchange occurs, supporting the ability of the faculty to fairly and effectively evaluate every student's academic achievements, and giving credence to the university's educational mission, its scholarly objectives and the substance of the degrees it awards. The protection of academic integrity requires there to be clear and consistent standards, as well as confrontation and sanctions when individuals violate those standards. The Colorado School of Mines desires an environment free of any and all forms of academic misconduct and expects students to act with integrity at all times.

Student Honor Code

Colorado School of Mines students also feel strongly about academic integrity. The students independently wrote and approved an Honor Code promoting high academic standards and zero tolerance of academic misconduct.

Preamble: The students of Colorado School of Mines (Mines) have adopted the following Student Honor Code (Code) in order to establish a high standard of student behavior at Mines. The Code may only be amended through a student referendum supported by a majority vote of the Mines student body. Mines students shall be involved in the enforcement of the Code through their participation in the Student Judicial Panel.

Each of us, under this Code, shall assume responsibility for our behavior in the area of academic integrity. As a Mines student, I am expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic excellence and personal integrity regarding my schoolwork, exams, academic projects, and research endeavors. Policy on Violation of Student Academic Misconduct

Academic misconduct is the intentional act of fraud, in which an individual seeks to claim credit for the work and efforts of another without authorization, or uses unauthorized materials or fabricated information in any academic exercise. Student Academic Misconduct arises when a student violates the principle of academic integrity. Such behavior erodes mutual trust, distorts the fair evaluation of academic achievements, violates the ethical code of behavior upon which education and scholarship rest, and undermines the credibility of the university. Because of the serious institutional and individual ramifications, student misconduct arising from violations of academic integrity is not tolerated at Mines. If a student is found to have engaged in such misconduct sanctions such as change of a grade, loss of institutional privileges, or academic suspension or dismissal may be imposed. As a guide, some of the more common forms of academic misconduct are noted below. This list is not intended to be all inclusive, but rather to be illustrative of practices the Mines faculty have deemed inappropriate:

1. Dishonest Conduct – general conduct unbecoming a scholar. Examples include issuing misleading statements; withholding pertinent information; not fulfilling, in a timely fashion, previously agreed to projects or activities; and verifying as true, things that are known to the student not to be true or verifiable.

2. Plagiarism – presenting the work of another as one's own. This is usually accomplished through the failure to acknowledge the borrowing of ideas, data, or the words of others. Examples include submitting as one's own work the work of another student, a ghost writer, or a commercial writing service; quoting, either directly or paraphrased, a source without appropriate acknowledgment; and using figures, charts, graphs or facts without appropriate acknowledgment. Inadvertent or unintentional misuse or appropriation of another's work is nevertheless plagiarism.

3. Falsification/Fabrication – inventing or altering information. Examples include inventing or manipulating data or research procedures to report, suggest, or imply that particular results were achieved from procedures when such procedures were not actually undertaken or when such results were not actually supported by the pertinent data; false citation of source materials; reporting false information about practical, laboratory, or clinical experiences; submitting false excuses for absence, tardiness, or missed deadlines; and, altering previously submitted examinations.

4. Tampering – interfering with, forging, altering or attempting to alter university records, grades, assignments, or other documents without authorization. Examples include using a computer or a false-written document to change a
1. The faculty member or thesis committee informs the student. The following procedure will be followed: if students have engaged in academic misconduct, they have grounds for suspecting that a student is responsible for academic misconduct the faculty member should:

- Assign a grade of "F" in the course to the student(s) that committed academic misconduct. A faculty member may impose a lesser penalty if the circumstances warrant, however the typical sanction is a grade of "F".

2. A) In the case of an allegation of academic misconduct associated with regular coursework, if after talking with the student, the faculty member feels the student is responsible for academic misconduct the faculty member should:

B) In the case of an allegation of academic misconduct associated with activities not a part of regular coursework (e.g., an allegation of cheating on a comprehensive examination), if after talking with the student, faculty member(s) feel the student is responsible for misconduct the faculty should:

- Assign an outcome to the activity that constitutes failure. If appropriate, the student's advisor may also assign a grade of "PRU" for research credits in which the student is enrolled. Regular institutional procedures resulting from either of these outcomes are then followed. Faculty members may impose a lesser penalty if the circumstances warrant, however, the typical sanction is failure.

- Contact the Associate Dean of Students, Graduate Dean and the student's Department Head/Division Director to officially report the violation in writing within 5 business days of the charge of academic misconduct. The Associate Dean of Students will communicate the final resolution in writing to the student, the faculty member, the Office of Academic Affairs, the Office of Graduate Studies and the student's advisor. The Associate Dean of Students will also keep official records on all students with academic misconduct violations.

Procedures for Addressing Academic Misconduct

Faculty members and thesis committees have discretion to address and resolve misconduct matters in a manner that is commensurate with the infraction and consistent with the values of the Institution. This includes imposition of appropriate academic sanctions for students involved in academic misconduct. However, there needs to be a certain amount of consistency when handling such issues, so if a member of the Mines community has grounds for suspecting that a student or students have engaged in academic misconduct, they have an obligation to act on this suspicion in an appropriate fashion. The following procedure will be followed:

1. The faculty member or thesis committee informs the student(s) of the allegations and charge of academic misconduct within 10 business days. This involves both verbal and written communication to the student(s). A conversation regarding the incident should take place between the faculty member/thesis committee and student. This conversation allows faculty members to get the student's perspective prior to making an official decision. It also allows the faculty member to educate the student on inappropriate behavior.

2. A) In the case of an allegation of academic misconduct associated with regular coursework, if after talking with the student, the faculty member feels the student is responsible for academic misconduct the faculty member should:

- Assign a grade of "F" in the course to the student(s) that committed academic misconduct. A faculty member may impose a lesser penalty if the circumstances warrant, however the typical sanction is a grade of "F".

- Contact the Associate Dean of Students and his/her Department Head/Division Director to officially report the violation in writing within 5 business days of the charge of academic misconduct. The Associate Dean of Students will communicate the final resolution in writing to the student, the faculty member, the Office of Academic Affairs, the Office of Graduate Studies and the student's advisor. The Associate Dean of Students will also keep official records on all students with academic misconduct violations.

Regular institutional procedures resulting from either of these outcomes are then followed. The letter of appeal must be received by the Vice President for Student Life within 7 business days of the date of the written notice of a violation from the Associate Dean of Students. Once an appeal request is received, the Vice President for Student Life will forward it on to one of the Appeal Review Administrators. The Appeal Review Administrator will review the written request to determine if the acceptable grounds for an appeal are met and if the appeal is timely filed. After review of the request, the Appeal Review Administrator will take one of the following actions:

a. Deny the appeal. If the appeal is denied, the decision is final and considered binding upon all involved, from which no additional appeals are permitted.

b. Proceed with the appeal by notifying the student and submitting all the details and the evidence to the Student Appeals Committee for resolution.

If the appeal request is granted, the Student Appeals Committee will review the case within 15 days. Please see the Student Handbook for more information on the Student Appeals Committee. The Student Appeals Committee may do any or all of the following during the review: interview with the faculty member; interview with the student(s); interview any appropriate witnesses; and/or review the student file including any homework, tests, quizzes or other assignments that were involved in the alleged misconduct. At the conclusion of the review, the Student Appeals Committee will make one of the following decisions:

a. Reverse the decision of the faculty member and withdraw the charge from the student's record.

b. Affirm the decision of the faculty member and uphold the sanction(s).

c. Forward the case to the Office of Academic Affairs for further consideration: the Student Appeals Committee believes that additional considerations should be made which could include increasing or decreasing the sanctions imposed or addressing additional issues that arose through the appeal process. Recommendations for appropriate sanctions should be made by the Student Appeals Committee to the Office of Academic Affairs. The additional consideration will be conducted by the Dean of Undergraduate Studies or Dean of Graduate Studies, depending on the academic standing of the student requesting the appeal. The Office of Academic Affairs staff member will make a final decision that will be communicated to the student within 10 business days.

The decision issued by the Student Appeals Committee or the Office of Academic Affairs (in matters that are forwarded for further consideration) is final and shall be considered binding upon all involved, from which no additional appeals are permitted.
